M. Reinhardt Passes Away; Funeral Wednesday P. M.

M. Reinhardt, a highly respected citizen of this city since 1905, died at his home here Monday morning, after having been in poor health during the past winter. He was almost 88 years of age at the time of his death.

For the past few months Mr. Reinhardt has been under constant care, and last Tuesday was able to be up and about town in his car. Relatives and friends thought he was growing better, consequently his death was received with surprise and general regret over the city.

The deceased was born in Eisfeld, Germany, August 7, 1848, and came to America in 1867 and settled near Alma, Wis. In 1881 he was married to Miss Ernestine Fleishmann, and they came to South Dakota in 1884 and settled upon a farm near Ferney, remaining there until he retired from active farming and moved to Groton, where he has since made his home. Mrs. Reinhardt died March 16, 1932.

He leaves to mourn his loss, one daughter, Mrs. Louise Naus, a son, Henry, one sister and three brothers, together with five grand-children.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the home conducted by Rev. Zeck and the remains were laid to rest in Groton cemetery.
